

My Name is _____. I'm in the _____ grade at _____ Elementary.

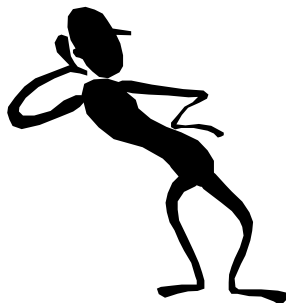

Sometimes I want to tell someone something. I may want to ask someone to do something. I may want to ask a question. I may not like something.

Sometimes I use a loud voice like a lion and yell. This makes people not want to listen to me.

When I want to tell someone something, I can use nice talk and friendly word. I can tone down my voice. Nice talk is not yelling. Nice talk is just right.

My parents, teachers, and classmates like it when I use nice talk and friendly words. When I use nice talk and friendly words, people may listen to me more. When I use nice talk and friendly words, I can let others know what I am thinking so that they can hear and understand.
